

the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the United Kingdom (Meltzer and Peck 1998). This has led to a growing reliance on the use of drugs to manage the condition.

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop a more holistic approach to the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia. This approach should take account of the individual's social and cultural context, as well as their physical and mental health. The aim of this paper is to explore the role of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia, and to discuss the challenges that nurses face in this role. The paper will also discuss the importance of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia, and the need for a more holistic approach to the management of the condition.

The paper will first discuss the role of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia. It will then discuss the challenges that nurses face in this role. The paper will also discuss the importance of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia, and the need for a more holistic approach to the management of the condition. The paper will conclude by discussing the need for a more holistic approach to the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia, and the role of the nurse in this approach.

The role of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia is a complex one. The nurse is responsible for the day-to-day care of the patient, and for ensuring that the patient receives the best possible care. The nurse is also responsible for monitoring the patient's progress, and for reporting any changes to the doctor. The nurse is also responsible for providing support and advice to the patient, and for helping the patient to manage their condition.

The challenges that nurses face in this role are many. One of the main challenges is the need to provide a high level of care, while also ensuring that the patient is comfortable and safe. Another challenge is the need to work with a multidisciplinary team, and to ensure that all team members are working towards the same goals. A third challenge is the need to provide support and advice to the patient, and to help the patient to manage their condition.

The importance of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia cannot be overstated. The nurse is the person who is most likely to be in contact with the patient on a day-to-day basis, and who is best placed to monitor the patient's progress. The nurse is also the person who is most likely to be able to provide support and advice to the patient, and to help the patient to manage their condition.

The need for a more holistic approach to the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia is becoming increasingly apparent. This approach should take account of the individual's social and cultural context, as well as their physical and mental health. The aim of this paper is to explore the role of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia, and to discuss the challenges that nurses face in this role. The paper will also discuss the importance of the nurse in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia, and the need for a more holistic approach to the management of the condition.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The second part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining accurate records of all assets, including property, equipment, and inventory. This is essential for ensuring the accuracy of the balance sheet and for providing a clear audit trail. The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all liabilities, including accounts payable, notes payable, and other obligations. This is essential for ensuring the accuracy of the balance sheet and for providing a clear audit trail. The fourth part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining accurate records of all equity accounts, including common stock, preferred stock, and retained earnings. This is essential for ensuring the accuracy of the balance sheet and for providing a clear audit trail. The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all income tax returns, including federal, state, and local returns. This is essential for ensuring the accuracy of the income statement and for providing a clear audit trail. The sixth part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining accurate records of all other financial documents, including contracts, agreements, and correspondence. This is essential for ensuring the accuracy of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail.

Dolly Levi (Nora Ginther) has thoughts of marriage as Horace Vandergelder sings "It Takes A Woman." The citizens of New York "call on Dolly."

Minnie Fay (Carol Klinefelter) and Mrs. Irene Molloy (Mary Beth Benson) take inventory at the millinery shop while Cornelius Hackl (Leo Ambre) explains to Barnaby Tucker (Mike Meloy) that "there's a lot of world out there." Dolly Levi (Nora Glinther) encourages the romance of Ermengarde (Claudia Evans) with Ambrose Kemper (Mark Simaga).

1971 SPRING MUSICAL

The Harmonia Gardens Restaurant scene epitomized the high degree of professionalism achieved by both the cast and crew in the 1971 Spring Musical, "Hello Dolly." Directed and produced by Charles Breckle and choreographed by Phyllis Peyrot, the musical was the result of long hours of hard work and practice. As the play opens, Horace Vandergelder engages matchmaker Dolly Levi to find him a suitable second wife. As a result of Dolly's meddling efforts, Vandergelder's two clerks, Cornelius Hackl and Barnaby Tucker and two millineresses, Mrs. Irene Molloy and Minnie Fay, realize that "it only takes a moment to be loved a whole life long." As the play closes, Horace realizes his love for Dolly and she becomes the second Mrs. Vandergelder.

Frank Kish, production manager, Jim Broton, stage manager, and Mike Dominic, lighting director, aided in making the play a success.

1971 PROM

"We've Only Just Begun," the 1971 Junior-Senior Prom, commenced with the couples arriving at the Sheraton in Chicago. The evening's activities were organized by General Chairman Barb LaMere, Prom Advisor Mr. Stephen Hronec, and members of the Junior class. In the Grand Ballroom, couples danced to the romantic music of Bob Wilson. Dinner preceded the crowning of Queen Alexis Menke and King Randy McCambridge. The World Column, at Post Prom, altered the atmosphere with their modern music. For the couples involved, Prom was a unique and memorable occasion.

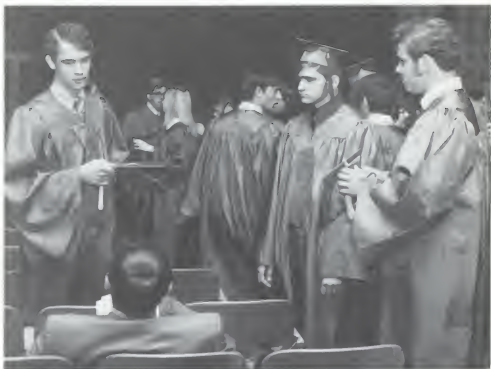

Lynn Janulis and Bob Volkman enjoy the dance. Queen Alexis Menke and King Randy McCambridge lead the Grand March; Delia O'Kelly and Lynetta Williamson wait for their date to return. Gail Karr, Judy Scheidler, and their escorts, relax after dinner.

1971 GRADUATION

Commencement exercises became a time of past remembrances and anticipation of the future and for four hundred thirty-three graduates of the class of '71 this was no exception. The graduation ceremonies began with the concelebration of the traditional Baccalaureate Mass by Bishop Andrew G. Grutka and Noll's religious faculty. This mass also marked the awarding of seventy-two scholarships to outstanding members of Noll's Senior Class. On Monday, May 31, Valedictorian Gregory Tabacznski, speaking for the entire Senior Class, recalled his memories of Noll for "without memories we become people without roots, without ideals, and without realities to fall back on." Then Bishop Grutka concluded the ceremonies by conferring the diplomas.

Valedictorian Greg Tabacznski expresses the feelings and future hopes of the graduating class of 1971. Joseph Laciak, Salutatorian, sums up what Bishop Noll means to him— "... the people here that I love." Graduates George Artim, Luci Ardelean, and John Ancich wait in anticipation for their coveted diploma. Graduates, families, and friends assemble for commencement exercises.

HOMECOMING

The 1971 Homecoming festivities began with the traditional parade through the streets of East Chicago on Thursday, October 21. Following the parade, Noll students and boosters gathered in the fieldhouse for a pep rally, which featured the senior skit, "Pickleman Goes West." The next day students took time out from school work to support their team at a cheering session during seventh period. That night the Bishop Noll Warriors suffered a disappointing loss to Lew Wallace. The festivities culminated Saturday night with the Homecoming Dance. The Noll cafeteria was decorated to fit this year's Hawaiian theme, "Ho'Okipa Mai." The music was provided by "Sircus." General Chairman for the Homecoming events was senior Debbie Lauer.

HOMECOMING COURT

FALL COMEDY

Noel Coward's, "Blithe Spirit," directed by Mr. Joseph Malczak and Miss Marilyn Popovich, depicts the life of Charles Condomine (John Daly) and his vain attempts to analyze the psychic powers of Madame Arcati (Diane Irk). Through her efforts, Mr. Condomine's first wife, Elvira (Marilynne Hennes), who had previously "passed over" returns to taunt his present wife, Ruth (Cara Torhan). Also witnessing this strange phenomenon were Dr. and Mrs. Bradman (Garrette Cope and Charlotte Gibson) and the Condomines' naive and innocent maid, Edith (Chris Jayjack).

Helen Manich and Dean Neidenthal acted as student directors. Technical assistants were Mike Dominik, Frank Kish, and Maria Hand.

A frightened Chris Jayjack loses her composure due to the antics of Marilynne Hennes. Dr. Bradman and Mrs. Condomine discuss the unusual circumstances involving Charles' injury. Cara Torhan, Garrett Cope, Charlotte Gibson and John Daly wait doubtfully for Dianne Irk to summon the supernatural.

Couples receive their ballots for Snow King and Queen. Gerry Jayjack and Tony Madejczyk walk through the pine forest leading to the toy factory as Roseann Pogorzelski and her escort dance to the music provided by the "Shades of Time."

WINTER FORMAL

"Babes in Toyland" was the theme of Winter Formal 1971. The success of this event was attributed to the many who worked under the direction of Bob Hanrahan, General Chairman. Through the efforts of Nancy Koharko and Roberta Sroka, Decorations Co-chairmen, the BNI cafeteria was transformed into the story-book "Toy Factory," where Santa appeared to distribute bids. Couples danced to the music of "Shades of Time." The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Snow King, Randy Martinez, and Snow Queen, Sandy Wins.

Snow King Randy Martinez and Queen Sandy Wins reign over the Toy Factory, while Russell Podowski and Marion Sowa display their dancing abilities. Couples enjoy the slower music.

King Tony Trojnar and Queen Joan Kuric reign over Mardi Gras.

Richard Beckman contemplates the purchase of candles from Joe Priebay. Chance booths offered every thing from stuffed animals to albums. Opp. page: Most successful booth was the Ball and Chain. Students were given the opportunity to wrestle the ferocious Mr. Holt. The balcony provided watchers with a view of the main floor during an intermission of the Battle of the Bands.

MARDI GRAS

Scenes from "The Wonderful World of Charlie Brown," along with a mobile of the Peanuts Characters, provided the decorations for the B.N.I. Mardi Gras, held on March Fourth and Fifth. This year's Mardi Gras, co-sponsored by the Mission Club and Student Council, supplied two days of fun, food and prizes for everyone at the carnival. Sixteen bands performed all week-end hoping to take first place in the "Battle of the Bands" contest. Booths such as the Ball and Chain, Moon Walk, Snoopy's Casino, 1950's Soda Shoppe, the jail, the American Food booth and the Car Smash competed for the titles of Best Decorated, Most Profitable, and Most Original.

Jim Berkowicz and Karen O'Keefe become lost in "A Space in Time." Mary Kay O'Brien and Damian Rincon dance to the music of "Courage." The pace of the Turnabout Dance was set by "Courage." Andy Gora, Service Club President, crowns Terri Cera as Sweetheart Queen.

TURNABOUT

"A Space in Time," this year's Turnabout Dance, transformed the BNI cafeteria into a world of fluorescent moons, stars, and zodiac signs. The dance is sponsored by the BNI Service Club with the assistance of Mrs. Mary Michielson, Service Club moderator and the dance general co-chairwomen, Terri Cera and Jane Chovanec. "Courage" provided the music for the evening. Crowning of the 1972 "Sweetheart Queen," Terri Cera, highlighted the evening. The Turnabout Dance gives girls a chance to treat their favorite guys to an evening out.

1972 SPRING MUSICAL

"You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," is a musical adaptation of the "Peanuts" comic strip. The scenes portray the frustrating life of a five year old boy, who never seems to do anything right. The role of Charlie Brown went to junior Kevin Tilka while senior Nancy Koharko played crabby Lucy Van Pelt. The gang also included Leo Ambre as Snoopy, Jim Broton, in his first role as Schroeder, Dean Niedenthal as Linus, and Maureen Mulholland as Peppermint Patty. Reverend Jack Winterlin, director was assisted by Miss Marilyn Popovich and student Dianne Irk. Mrs. Mary Krick was choreographer.

The Regency Hyatt House, in Chicago, hosted the 1972 BNI Prom, "Colour My World." Representatives from the hotel greeted couples as they arrived, and lead them on a tour of the hotel. The couples, after a ride on the glass elevators, proceeded to the ballroom where they dined and danced to the music of Shades of Time and Stone Ground Kelly. The crowning of Nancy Backus and Lupe Solis as Prom Queen and King highlighted the evening.

1972 GRADUATION

Four hundred graduates ended their four years at Noll by a series of events. Baccalaureate mass was concelebrated on Wednesday, May 24 by the four senior religion teachers, including the senior class sponsor, Father Zivich. Later that night the traditional senior class dance was held. While "Circus" provided the music, the senior paper, which included the class titles, prophecies and wills, was given out. Larry Wielgos and Sue O'Brien were named Mr. and Miss Institute for their service to Noll during the past four years. Finally, on Monday, May 29th, commencement exercises were held in the fieldhouse. Valedictorian Joan Gilbert and Salutatorian Harolyn Coleman addressed the graduates and their guests. Bishop Andrew G. Grutka spoke to the graduates and awarded the diplomas.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The primary function of the 1971-72 Student Council was to form a bridge between the administration, faculty, and students. Student Council re-established the discipline, student welfare, campus and recruiting committees in order to involve more students at Noll. Bi-monthly meetings also allowed every student a chance to express his opinion on school functions.

Under the direction of Student Council's co-sponsors, Father Pat Connolly and Sister Geraldine, students sponsored Leadership Day, Homecoming, Winter Formal, and several sock hops. Student members also assisted Mission Club with the annual Mardi Gras.

Jim Etter and Pat Daly rehearse for an upcoming choral concert. Choral members practice long hours in an effort to develop and strengthen their singing voices. Father Winterlin directs the Girl's Choral during the Christmas concert.

CHORAL

One of the outstanding talent groups at Noll is the Bishop Noll choral group, under the direction of Father John Winterlin. Stressing voice development, the students sang a variety of songs ranging from Bach to Bacharach, including classical, rock, and numbers from popular Broadway musicals. Some of the favorite selections were songs from Jesus Christ, Superstar.

The choral groups—Freshmen, Sophomore, Mixed, and Nollaires—presented Fall and Christmas concerts, as well as singing for the Golden Anniversary Mass. Highlighting the year was a concert trip to Canada, financed by the selling of candy.

Bob Hanrahan listens intently to singing instructions. Nollaires add a special touch of Christmas spirit to the concert.

Seniors Denise Urban and Diana Bruno serve Hawaiian-style dinners to guests at the annual Women's Club Style Show. Vice-President Terri Cera and Secretary Peggy Rowe examine the menu for an upcoming banquet.

SERVICE CLUB

Junior and Senior girls willing to volunteer service for school activities and banquets make up the Bishop Noll Service Club. The members are selected from all interested sophomore girls on teacher recommendation.

Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Michielsen, the girls assisted at many of the school's social functions. Serving sports banquets and ushering for the Incoming Freshman Program are part of the normal Service Club duties. Bishop Noll's fiftieth year celebration offered members the added chance to serve at the Golden Anniversary Mass, and a dinner-dance.

The annual Turnabout Dance, sponsored in March by the Service Club, was "A Space in Time". The event was coordinated by General Co-Chairmen Terri Cera and Jane Chovanec.

Nancy Mantich helps Mrs. Dienes dish out a piping hot meal. Service Club President Andrea Gora and Treasurer Sandy Lesniewski inspect kitchen facilities in the BNI cafeteria. Members often have to wait in assembly style line to serve some of the larger banquets. Junior Marcia Pfeiffer serves coffee at a banquet.

PUBLICATIONS

The annual literary magazine, The Beginning, sponsored by Mr. Ron Mutzbauer, gave imaginative students a chance to express themselves. The Beginning included essays, poetry, short stories, art work, and photographs.

The JourNoll's main objective this year was to inform students of all school activities. Through the use of sports, opinion, feature articles, and a few special columns, including "Teacher Feature" and "Speaking of Sports," the JourNoll accomplished its purpose with a bi-weekly issue.

The News Bureau, made up of junior and senior Journalism students, gave outsiders the chance to learn about inside activities at Noll.

Members of The Beginning staff: JoEllen Mistarz, Jann Grabski, Carol Kristi, Karen Keilman, and Rosemary Kertis. VARSITY CLUB AND CHEERLEADERS

Athletes who have earned a letter in any one of the eight varsity sports merits membership in the Varsity Club. The main purpose of the club is to promote participation in all athletic activities. With the help of Mr. Bob Bradtke, club moderator, the N-men sponsored a Basketball Homecoming dance after the Noll victory over Chesterton. Aside from regular duties, which included ushering at pep rallies and basketball games and monitoring during lunch hours, they also sold basketball, swimming, and wrestling booster pens to the student body.

VARSITY CLUB AND CHEERLEADERS

This years spirited BNI cheerleaders roused the enthusiasm of sports fans throughout the 1971-72 year. Led by captain Judy Luberta, the varsity cheerleaders Robbin Barrera, Maureen Mulholland, Diane Skurka, Roberta Sroka, and Sandy Wins, supported the teams with cheers such as "Warriors Mighty," and "Warriors got the power." Rigorous practice sessions, summer camp attendance, and overall dedication helped to keep school spirit going. Supporting the junior-varsity teams were Therese LaMere, Alanna Purcell, and Patti Sember. This year's freshmen were backed by Judy Ardelean, Sharon Kolbert, and Dokey LaMere. The cheerleaders were sponsored by Miss Carole Hepner.

200 lb. CLUB AND G.A.A.

The 200 lb. Club is a relatively new organization that requires each member to bench or military press 200 lbs. (one repetition) in addition to maintaining a "C" average, participating in a sport and the weight program, and having a good disciplinary record. Although the club is open to all classes, it functions as a symbol of outstanding achievement. Coach John Bobalik, moderator of the club, proclaims, "Being involved in a sport, or extracurricular activity says something about the quality of the person involved; being a member of the 200 lb. Club says a little bit more!"

The purpose of the Girl's Athletic Association is to give girls an opportunity to display their athletic abilities and practice good sportsmanship. Members compete with other area high schools in sports such as volleyball, softball, basketball, and tumbling. The sponsor, Miss Sheila Kelly, added track and tennis to the athletic program this year.

BOOSTER AND PEP CLUBS

This year's Booster Club, sponsored by Mrs. Barbara Pollen, offered junior and senior girls a chance to express their school spirit in an organized form. Meetings and practices were held every Wednesday morning in the fieldhouse. With the traditional blue and gold vests, letter formations and hand motions were coordinated to the cheers. This year the members of the Booster Club also sponsored a pumpkin-carving party after the Noll-Columbus football game.

With the help of Mrs. Garnette Kockler, this year's Sophomore Pep Club promoted school spirit by attending the Junior Varsity basketball games. Their outfits consisted of blue and gold N's.

BAND AND POM PONS

The BNI Band, under the direction of Mr. P. James La-Mantia, performed at many activities including winter and spring concerts, area parades and pep rallies. Drum major-ette, Kathy Webb led the band. Band president Leo Ambre, Vice-President Stormy Palauski and Secretary Mary Francis Gilbert led the sixty member band to regional and state-wide recognition in contests and parades. The band, accompanied by the choral group performed in Canada this spring.

In its second year, the B.N.I. Pom-Pon squad directed by Miss Terri Bigheart, gave half-time shows at football and basketball games and marched in city parades. The squad consisted of thirty-one members who attended a summer camp to perfect their dance routine, which resulted in a second place award at the Northwest Indiana Invitational Pom-Pon contest.

Performances can be exhausting. HI-Y AND HUMAN RELATIONS CLUBS

The purpose of the Human Relations Club is to bridge the gap between different ethnic groups and confront the everyday problems that students face. The organization annually sponsors a student exchange program and Human Relations Day with other schools in the area.

The Hi-Y Club is affiliated with the YMCA and serves as a fraternity where members are formally initiated. Members vote on two club sweethearts to reign at their annual dance held in the spring. Both clubs are sponsored by Father Pat Gaza.

MISSION CLUB AND STAGE CREW

Mission Club's main goal was to help the needy people in the Calumet area. Weekly collections and raffles were held, along with food drives during the holiday seasons. Under the direction of Father Mosko, moderator, and Larry Wielgos, President, the annual Mardi Gras was sponsored.

Even before the cast of a play is selected, students interested in "behind the scene work" begin their jobs. Stage crew members spend many long hours building props and other necessary items that make a high school play seem highly professional. Jim Broton, stage manager, Mike Dominik, lighting director, and Frank Kish, production manager, were three major co-ordinators of stage crew activities.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Students are elected to the National Honor Society on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership and service to the school. Under the direction of Sister M. Imelda, the club sponsors the Folk Festival and Talent Show.

The purpose of the National Business Honor Society is to promote business interest. In order to attain membership in this organization, an upperclassman must maintain a B average and have taken at least three business courses during the year. NBHS is co-sponsored by Mrs. Pihulic and Sr. Rosita.

Outstanding achievement in journalism entitles a student to membership in the honorary organization of Quill and Scroll. To qualify, a student must show outstanding achievement in the field of journalism. Representative organizations include The Marquette, the JourNoll, and The Beginning. The Quill and Scroll is sponsored by Mrs. LaMere.

GUITAR SOCIETY AND SPEECH AND DEBATE

The purpose of the Guitar Society was to give all Noll students the opportunity to express themselves through the medium of folk music. Sponsored by Mr. Doug Parker, members meet to exchange songs and present original compositions. Along with the National Honors Society, the Guitar Society sponsored the annual Folk Festival.

The BNI Speech and Debate Team enables students to express ideas and opinions on today's issues. The team is sponsored by Mr. Ronald Mutzbauer. Radio and Broadcasting was recently added to the categories available to speech team members.

Harolyn Coleman and Tim Laud check figures from the computer.

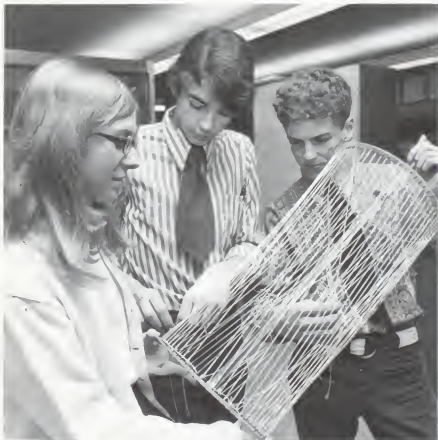

MATH CLUBS

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

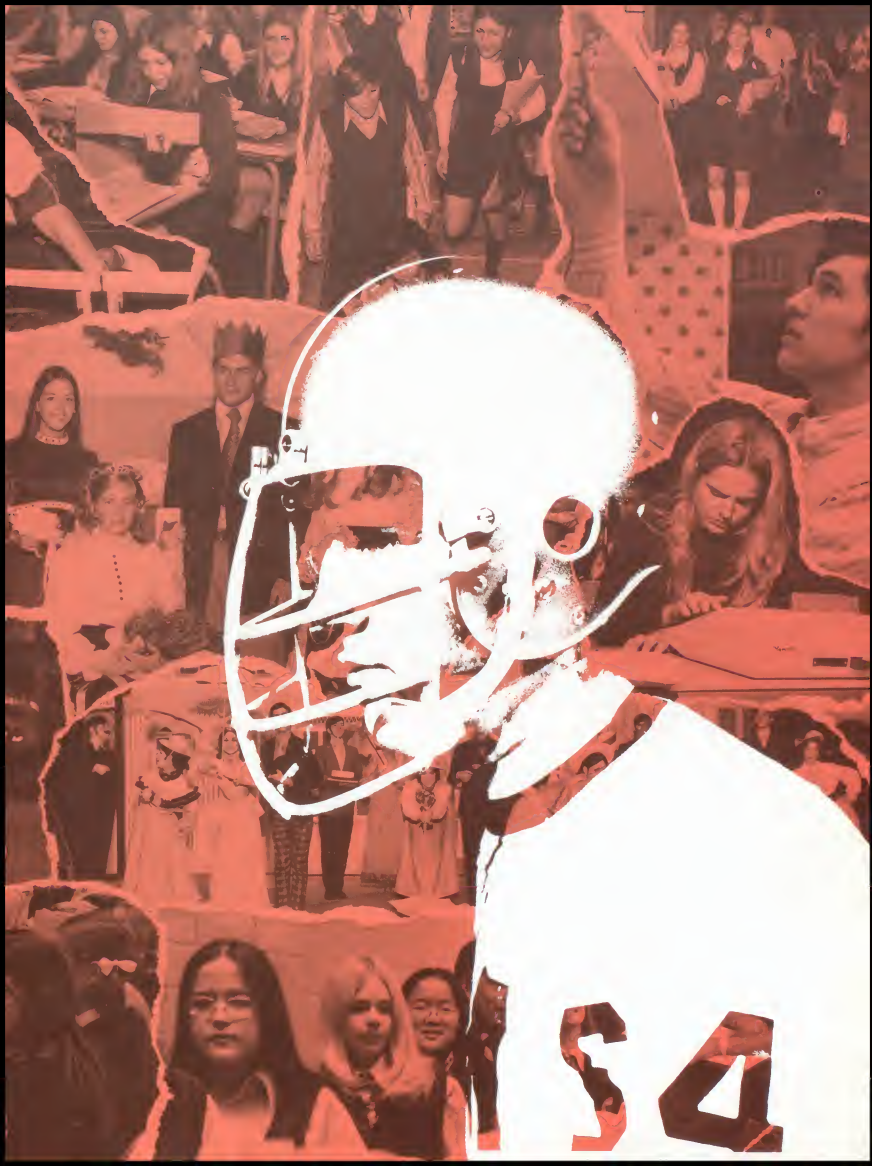

The math clubs are comprised of students whose interests lie in applying mathematics to activities outside of the classroom. The main function of the Sophomore Math Club, sponsored by Mr. Queyquep, is the organization of an invitational Math Tournament for area eighth grade students. The members of the Junior-Senior Math Club, with the aid of their faculty advisor, Sister Imelda, serve as judges for this annual tourney.

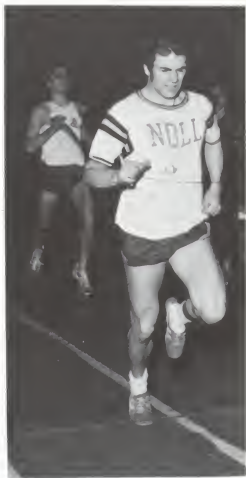

The Noll Amateur Radio Club, sponsored by Father Hendricks, encourages students to further their interests in ham radio operation. At Christmas time members transmit messages to soldiers in Viet Nam.

Jim Broton and John Daly help Harolyn Coleman with a "take-home" math test. Sophomores Adrianne Sobilo, Ken Evancic, and Pat Daly construct an illustration of a geometric concept. Members of the radio club prepare to send a message to a station outside the United States.

1971 TRACK

The 1971 Warrior Track team combined youth and experience to compile a 17-1 dual meet record. Freshman Rod White finished a strong fourth in regional competition and qualified for the state finals. School records were set by Senior Joe Potraza in the long jump, Bruce Bittner in the outdoor mile, and Tony Klusas in the half mile. Other outstanding team members were Dave Comsa, Gene Owen, Orlando Garcia, and Tim Quinn. With 14 returning lettermen and a little more strength in the field events department, the Warriors in '72 should have another outstanding season.

1971 BASEBALL

Playing the longest schedule in the school's history, the BNI baseball team finished the season with a respectable season of 22 wins, 17 losses, and 1 tie game. At one point, the Warriors were 17-5-1, but fatigue and injuries to key players set the team back. One of their main assets was that many of the players filled two or three positions. Eric Wilk led the team with a .397 batting average, and Joe Laciak led in hits (27) and stolen bases (21). Senior pitcher Randy McCambridge fired his way through 67 strikeouts, while Junior Bob Ispas finished the season with a 4-1 record and a 1.08 ERA. The JV team wound up its season by capturing nine out of its last ten games. With nine returning lettermen and promising reserves, the Warriors could be the team to beat next season.

CROSS COUNTRY

After a slow start, the 1971 Cross Country team rebounded and proved to be the best in the school's history. Led by Bruce Bittner, Tony Klusas, and Tom Vahey, the Warriors culminated a fine record of 91 wins and 19 losses thus qualifying for the state finals. En route to their fourteenth place finish in the state, the Warriors placed fourth in the sectionals and third in the regionals. Other victories included the Hammond City Title (Noll's first), and an upset of Highland, a perennial state power. Outstanding individuals on the team included Julian Brown, Mark Bittner, Jim Hohenberger, Tom Nies, Jim Burczak, and Clifford Hughes.

FOOTBALL

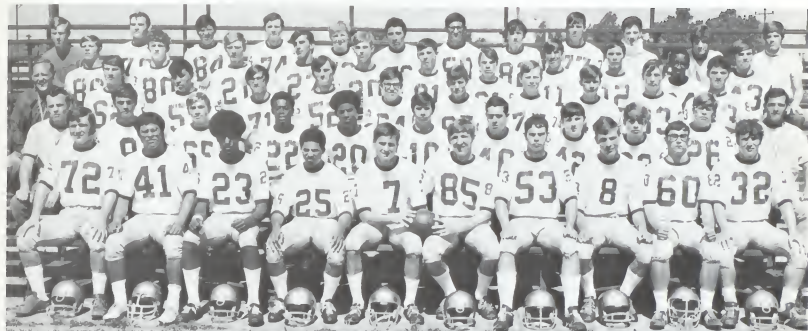

Injuries, inexperience, and lack of size in both the offensive and defensive lines resulted in what could be called a "disappointing" 4-6 record for the 1971 Warrior Football team. However, first year coach Gerald Vlastic's team was impressive in victories over E. C. Washington, Hammond Clark, Lowell and a narrow loss to a state ranked Hammond Morton team in a hard fought game. The team's quarterbacking duties were shared by Senior Eric Wilk (also an all-state defensive back) and Junior Mike Karaffa. The Warriors possessed fine receivers in Bob Peppers, Kevin Gatlin, and Frank Podkul. The running attack centered around Senior Al Dowell, who led the Calumet Region in rushing with over 1,000 yards that included a school record of 278 yards against Clark. With 14 returning lettermen, including tri-captains John Mojzik, Tony Rea, and Bob Peppers, the 1972 squad should have the size and experience to once again return the winning to Bishop Noll.

SWIMMING

Faced with massive injuries to a majority of swimmers, the 1972 Swimming Team finished a respective season with a 6 win, 7 loss dual meet record. Senior Co-Captains Mike Reilly and George Fitzpatrick led the team. Standouts also included Doug Kamradt, John Burczak, Bob Wilson, Pat O'Neill, Harry Dolinski, Tom Hauter, Jim Bogusz, Jim Brown, Scott Kamradt, Bob Peppers, Dan Hoffman, and Freshman Mark Volkman. Sectional standouts were Doug Kamradt, capturing the 1st place awards for the 100 yd. Backstroke and 50 yd. Freestyle; Pat O'Neill, winning the 400 yd. Freestyle; and Mike Reilly, placing 2nd in the 200 yd. Freestyle. Noll placed 2nd in Sectionals and captured 8th place in the State. Down-state competition resulted in a 4th place in the 100 yd. Backstroke for Doug Kamradt and a 5th place in State for Mike Reilly in the 200 yd. Freestyle.

Most Valuable Swimmer Award went to Doug Kamradt; Most Improved Swimmer Award went to Pat O'Neill. Coach Herb Marquedant, who is leaving Noll to pursue a Master's Degree in Physical Education next year, says, "next year's team is a young team with outstanding potential."

WRESTLING

The Noll Wrestlers again proved this year to be one of the toughest teams in the region. Completing a 10-2 meet record, the grapplers only losses were to LaPorte and powerful Highland. Sectionals were a disappointment, as no one advanced in competition.

To no one's surprise Captain Lupe Solis closed out a brilliant career at Noll by winning the Most Valuable Wrestler Award. Bob Murphy with 12 pins, was honored as the wrestler who had the most pins this season. Other awards went to Pat Halton and Dave Stodola, co-recipients of the Most Improved Wrestler Award. The newly formed Tom Ramker Memorial Award was presented to Senior Lee Sredzinski, honoring the wrestler who has shown superior achievement not only in wrestling but also in academics.

BASKETBALL

After a disastrous first half-season which found the Warrior basketball team with a 1-9 record, Coach Bradtke made a number of changes including the decision of a definite starting lineup, a slow-down offense, and a zone press defense. These changes, coupled with overall improved team play, resulted in a 6-4 record for the second half which included victories over E. C. Washington and Highland and two heart-breaking losses to Valparaiso and Gary Roosevelt. Major contributors to the second half success were Sophomore Tom Ispas (Most Valuable Player and 9.8 points per game); Seniors Jim Twarek (11.8) and Randy Ferko (7.7); and Juniors Tom Karlowicz (9.1) and Harry Powell (6.0); while co-captains Tim Porsche and Mark Lissy, along with Frank Podkul and Ed Joyce (Most Improved), provided the team with a strong bench. With four of the five starters returning, next year's team should continue the success experienced in the second half of the '72 season.

Coach Bob Bradtke outlines game strategy for Ed Joyce. Noll's Harry Powell battles for a rebound. Sophomore Tom Ispas drives through the Chesterton press.

Noll's 1972 track team experienced many surprises and disappointments in compiling a 27-8-1 record. The highlights of the season included a first place in the Clark Relays and a good showing in the Noll Relays. The team was seriously hampered by the loss of key sprinters and middle distance men. However, Seniors Keith Clinton (pole vault) and Kevin Gatlin (hurdles) qualified for regionals and school records were set by Juniors Tony Klusas in the 880, Julian Brown in the two mile, Senior Pat Knight in the high jump, and the relay team of Tim Quinn, John Ross, Cliff Hughes, and Kevin Gatlin. Other strong performers included Seniors Bruce Bitner, Tom Nies, Jim McHale, Jim Hohenberger, Ric Horn; Juniors Paul Bubliss, Lenny Ostrowski, Robert Budny; Sophomore Jim Burczak.

1972 BASEBALL

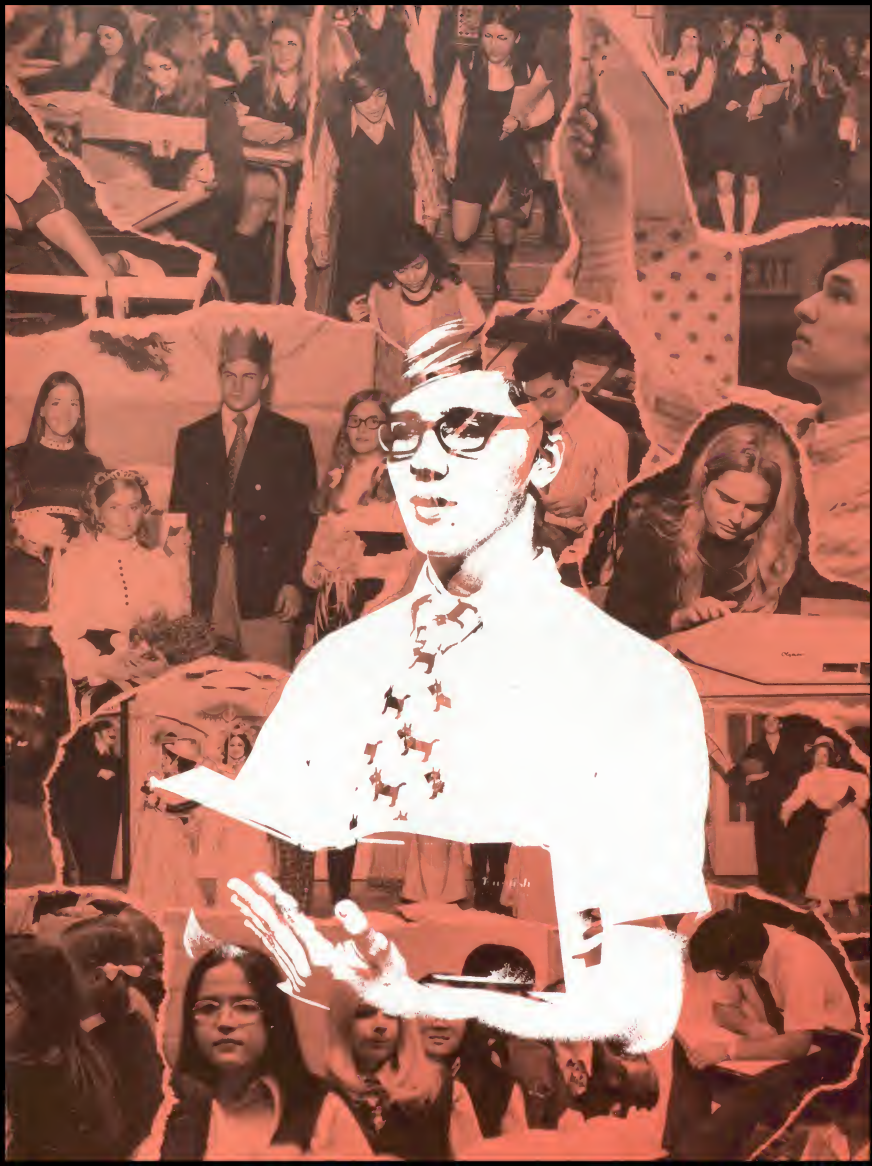

Playing perhaps the most demanding schedule in the region, the 1972 Baseball team wound up its season with a record of 27-10-1. Included in the victory column were wins over Hammond Morton, Merrillville, and Illinois power Lane Tech. Leading the team in hitting were juniors Gerry Kray (.343), Bob Madryk (.310), and senior Eric Wilk (.327). Others displaying productive seasons at the plate were seniors John Matusik (.293), Ed Rysiewicz (.286), Frank Podkul (.295), and junior John Mojzik (.316). Gerry Kray led the team with 32 runs batted in, and Eric Wilk stole 24 bases in as many tries. Top hurlers for Noll this year were Jeff Moldrawski (9-0), Bob Ispas (6-3), and Frank Moricz (4-1). The finale of the season came as the team won the Hammond Sectional title, but finished second in Regionals after a close loss to Hammond Morton.

ACADEMICS

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The Business Department, headed by Mrs. Pihulic and Sister M. Rosita, provided the business students with the necessary courses needed for a position in the business world. Students interested in secretarial fields are offered courses in typing, shorthand, clerical practice, and business machines. Other courses offered are: Business Management, Business Law, Retailing, Business Mathematics, and Consumer Economics.

Each year, junior and senior business students, who have shown exceptional effort in their courses, are inducted into the National Business Honor Society.

Diane Teutemacher changes a typewriter ribbon the hard way. Cathy Penwell applies skills learned in Business Machines while Ilona Bac, Marcia Barker and Nancy Ellingsen work with dictaphones in the same course.

Students find that by sometimes helping each other more concepts can be learned. Individual "board" work, demonstrated by Matt Bartz, also helps. Janet Kaminsky carefully corrects an error.

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Under the direction of Mr. James St. Amour, Bishop Noll's English department has devised a four-year program in literary appreciation, writing development, and related language and study skills. These goals are being accomplished through daily English classes, plus courses in speech, composition, and communication arts designed to meet the future needs of the students.

Through the efforts of the Language department, headed by Miss Karol Karaffa, BNI students participated in a program in which they learned the language, customs, literature, history, and philosophy of a foreign country. To emphasize the importance of communicating in a foreign language, tapes, records, and language labs are employed.

Nancy Backus studies English literature. Independent study makes it possible for John Daly to select his own reading material. The study of English grammar enables students to apply their knowledge in foreign language classes.

Freshmen students study basic fundamentals of the French language. Cindy Blosky and Barb Macak listen intently to a spanish lecture. Joellen Kulczyk strives to improve French pronunciation by listening to a tape in the language lab.

Bishop Noll's choral groups perform at the Christmas Concert. Kevin Tilka finishes his clay sculpture. Mixed choral member Sharma Croom listens to candy selling instructions.

Sue Mlynarski sketches an art model. Band member Mike Lewers practices with the concert band.

FINE ARTS

The Fine Arts Department, headed by Father Winterlin, provides an excellent opportunity for students in many fields of fine arts. The art curriculum includes basic design, crafts, print-making, ceramics, drawing, painting and sculpture. Directed by Mr. P. James La Mantia, the BNI band provides music for numerous school activities, including football and basketball games, parades, concerts and musicals. In choral classes fundamental music theory is taught in addition to vocal skills. Choral students, along with the Nollaires, present three concerts annually. This year, the band and mixed choral sold candy to finance a trip to Canada.

Sophomores Jeannie Hajducko, Lori Toysen, and Andrea Scheffki combine their cooking talents in preparing corn dogs. Chris Nowinski, Kathy Baginski, Nina Morales, and Marilyn Gadzala receive sewing instructions from Sister Majorie as senior Danette Garza attempts a new cookie recipe.

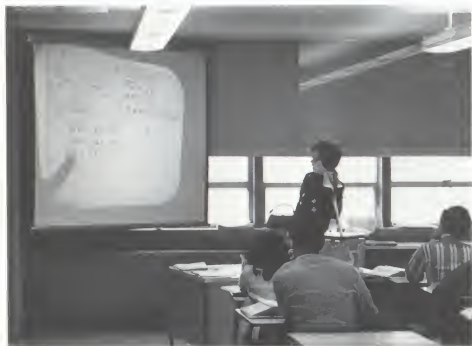

HOME ARTS

Chairman Sister Marjorie directs the Home Arts Department in teaching students the basic skills needed in home-care. The Clothing Division offers knitting, crocheting and basic sewing methods, along with an insight of textile and fashion industries. In the Foods Division, nutrition and meal planning are taught, with the emphasis on food preparation. In addition to hearing daily lectures about these fundamental skills, students practice the arts through lab work, which enables the students to apply the procedures they learn in the classroom.

MATHEMATICS

The Bishop Noll Mathematics Department prepares students for college and the business world. Courses such as Geometric Algebra, Algebra and Trigonometry, Business Math, Calculus and Computer Programming strive to stimulate the student interest in these fields. By the use of overhead projectors and three-dimensional equipment, the concepts of mathematics are made easier for students to grasp. Under the direction of Sister M. Imelda, department head, teachers stress practical application of class learning.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Physical Education Department, headed by Mr. Bill Archer and Miss Sheila Kelly, works to develop the physical strength of the students through swimming, volleyball, softball, soccer, basketball and tumbling. Students are divided into teams where the basic rules and regulations for each sport played are taught. Good sportsmanship and teamwork are emphasized. Acquired speed, smooth coordination and fundamental skills of modern athletic sports are some of the objectives of physical education.

Diving, a major part of the swimming program, stresses form as well as coordination. Calisthenics serve physical education students as a body toner and as an all-over conditioner. Tom Hauter develops stamina through swimming.

RELIGION AND SOCIAL STUDIES

The responsibility of preparing young people for Christian maturity falls on the Religion Department of Bishop Noll. Father Rugabber, head of the Religion Department, says that the goal of the religion classes is "not creating theologians, but followers of Christ."

Although the field of Social Studies is often considered by many students as a factual study of events and places, Bishop Noll tries to present it in a different manner. The essence of social studies, according to Mr. Timothy Hyland, Social Studies Department head, is "man's relation with man and his environment."

Julius Lentz and Denise Kozlowski enjoy a lighter moment in Contemporary Problems. Freshmen discover that notetaking is an important aspect in World Cultures.

SCIENCE

Under the direction of Mr. Walter Pikul, the Bishop Noll Science Department gives students an introduction to the basic concepts of science. Sophomores studying biology are taught important facts about living things, varying from bacteria cultures to man. Chemistry is designed to help the students see how chemical principles and concepts are developed from observation and data. Seniors study the relationships between forces and motions of an object in the physics course. All science students find that laboratory periods give them an opportunity to apply their classroom knowledge in experimentation.

Sandee Wrobel and Blanka Mora share a microscope while examining a prepared slide. Biology students listen to a lecture on cell division. Donna Kuric and Marianne Firrek discover that things always don't work out the way the book says.

This year has been for me what could be called an experience in living. This book is an expression of that 'living' experience of the people at Noll.

We've tried to present Bishop Noll as people relating to and with people.

To all of the staff, my friends, and my family, I say thank-you with much love. "I never could have done it without you."

I've lots of memories left to hug to myself in future years. Thanks for being a part of them.

As co-editor of the '72 Marquette, I have learned and experienced many things which have left me with my own memories. However, I have tried to present the past year as it was to the students. All of you can judge the book and come to your own conclusions as to how well the staff and I have done. For those of you who might be dissatisfied, I can only say that we did try. And for those of you who did like the book, I hope it brought back memories of this particular year. To this year's staff, I want to extend my sincerest gratitude and appreciation for their hard work and helpfulness throughout the year.

Finally, I would like to wish the best of luck to the 1973 staff in their production of the Marquette.
